Mr. Chapman

Dear Sir.

I have yours of the 10th and in reply am saying that what I think in consideration of the purchase of you with a good prospect of a lot more than I can buy. I think that you ought to honor me for a little consideration as for the $25.00 slug and some others which I will mention later. Now this stuff I want to buy now or soon, and if you make me a right price will probably keep most of it, so that in the transaction you will have a good sale out of it. I don't care for any proofs. I would like for you to send the following or as many as you can. The rest I will take care of.

Dear Sir

Did I send you
by mistake an order
made to Frank Scott.
I did not understand
you and you said the net was correct did you mean that it was balanced or that it was as you had stated before stated and a balance.

Dear Sir

Please return
the sum of £100 I have enclosed to all those
for me who return
what was left of the first lot. I am sure that you will not mind. I am deeply indebted to you
and all the £100 at 38
you are willing to
very much of course
send the £100. But I am sure, I am sure I do not want to be sent. I am sure of it.
I am sure of it. I am
